

Understanding DOJ TITLE II RULE

ACCESSIBILITY

Overview of Title II of the ADA

Title II of the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) prohibits discrimination based on disability in state and local government services, including public education. Schools, colleges, and universities must provide equal access to all programs and digital content. The DOJ enforces compliance and provides guidelines to support accessibility.

Digital Teaching Material

Any digital material used for teaching or communication must be accessible.

Access for All Students

Ensuring that all students can interact with online content is a legal and ethical responsibility.

What Needs to Be Accessible?

School Websites & Portals

Learning Management Systems (LMS)

Online Assignment & Course Materials

Digital Textbooks & PDFs

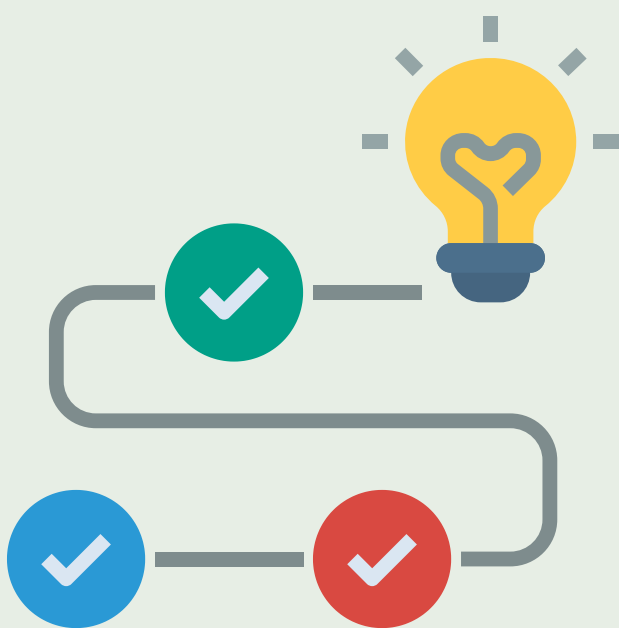

Videos with Captions & Transcripts

Mobile Apps & Communication Tools

Steps to Compliance

- 1 Conduct an accessibility audit.
- 2 Identify barriers and prioritize fixes.
- 3 Train staff on digital accessibility.
- 4 Implement WCAG 2.1 standards for all new content.
- 5 Prioritize fixes for older content.
- 6 Ensure vendors demonstrate compliance.
- 7 Establish process for continuous monitoring and feedback.

Who Does This Impact?

- Public Schools (K-12)
- Public Colleges & Universities
- Educational Agencies & Districts
- Teachers, IT Teams, & Administrators
- Curriculum Procurement

Need Assistance?

www.coursearc.com

CONTACT US

info@coursearc.com